This month

August has been a bit of a rough month for us here at CBC headquarters. The dreaded lurgy laid a few of us low more than once and forced delays in what should have been a smooth-running agenda. Ah well, such is that troubled time called winter!

ROUGH MONTH

Notwithstanding, attendance numbers are maintaining consistently healthy levels and the August jam was a hoot. We welcomed visitors from far and wide.

Sarah Cowan and Jeremy

Kemp came down from Batemans Bay; Manny Aigner came over from Jindabyne; Klaus Tietz from Bermagui; John Van Buuren and Steve Hartnett from Canberra; and several from closer to home.

Who knows who'll turn up at the next jam? That's one of the great things about jams because you just never know who might turn up. But our regulars are always welcome too! And the newcomers to blues jamming, young and old — you're very welcome too. Come along and get connected with other musos.

Swap ideas, encourage and support each other.

Don't forget the Bega Valley Motorcycle Expo on Saturday 17th September at the Candelo Showgrounds.

BEGA VALLEY MOTORCYCLE EXPO IN CANDELO

The CBC house band will be a part of the fabulous music line-up.

With a successful August jam behind us we're looking forward to the next one — Sunday 11th September. See you there!

Our jam venue...

monthly blues jam.

Second Sunday of every month.

Quote me...

I realised I was tired of singing about trees and flowers. I wanted to sing about real life. From then on, nobody could tell me anything was better than blues.

- Robert Cray
