The April jam was an opportunity missed by many punters and jammers. The numbers were down on previous jams and too bad because we had the innovative The New Savages from Melbourne hosting the jam.

MELBOURNE HILL COUNTRY BLUES

They brought a new (for us in the Bega Valley at least) dimension to the blues which was both educational and entertaining. These guys tour relentlessly as they continue to hone their skills and preach about Melbourne Hill Country Blues.

Low punter numbers notwithstanding, the lads had a good time in Candelo and were very supportive of the aims and objectives of the CBC. No doubt they'll come back our way again in the future. We certainly hope so!

FUND RAISING EFFORT BEARS FRUIT

Our fund-raising effort (for the Tathra Bushfire Relief Concert support) on the day saw punters taking advantage of CDs by The New Savages, CBC T-shirts and general donations.

Thank you all for your contributions. And a special thanks to Milan & Darren for donating the full proceeds of their CD sales on the day.

This month

Funds raised are destined for the staging of the concert.

CBC SUPPORTS TBRC STAGING

The CBC will be further supporting the TBRC—Band Together by providing backline equipment for Stage 3 at the event. Equipment to be supplied will include a drum kit and a bass rig.

FRIENDS OF THE CBC NUMBERS GROWING

Our Friends of the CBC initiative is continuing to garner support with the addition of more members in recent weeks. We are very grateful for your support and your vision in helping to further blues music in the Bega Valley.

Here's a little snippet from the AllAboutBluesMusic.com website that you may find interesting (with slight editing to suit the context)...

"So much of what we take for granted in music over the years has its roots in the Blues."

Classic 12-bar Country Blues moved to the city in the black diaspora that accompanied the depression of the 30's, and as a result gave us urban Electric Blues.

Soon there was Jump Blues, which became Rhythm 'n' Blues, which then crossed over into Rock 'n' Roll. Then

ALL ABOUT BLUES MUSIC WEBSITE

Gospel got a taste of the 'Devil's music', and morphed into Soul.

AllAboutBluesMusic.com explores what went on at the crossroads, and which innovators set off in these new directions.

There is no story without History. Rolling Stones fans need to know about Muddy Waters. Eric Clapton fans need to know where Robert Johnson was coming from. Even Punk and Grunge have definite roots in the Blues. It is known as 'standing on the shoulders of giants.'

We will try to give you the authorised version. The facts we publish here [on the website] will be checked from at least two reputable sources (i.e. not Wikipedia). We will make mistakes, but we will debate them and research deeper and arrive at a higher level of truth."

The next jam is on Sunday 13th May. See you there.

Help keep the blues alive!

Jammers, please take note! To assist with an orderly jam and to enable as many jammers as possible to participate...

1. Get your name on the jam board if you wish to join a jam set. Walking up uninvited is not cool.
2. Watch the board and be ready for your set on time.
3. Tune up prior to going on.
4. Minimise your setup time. Wasted time will be deducted from your slot. You have twenty minutes so make the most of them.
5. Don't go overtime (unless and only if you are invited to by the jam co-ordinator).
6. Clear the stage promptly at the end of your set.
7. And, please play the blues - Nothin' but the Blues!

See the expanded rules and guidelines here:

The *Minglewood
Blues Band*
hosts the CBC jam on Sunday 13th
May 2018

Only 12 months ago four like-minded fanatical blues musicians decided to form a blues band that had a common purpose: To play the blues for the fun and love of it. They also wanted to concentrate on festivals and blues venues.

They have also started work on an album and plan to start recording soon. This will comprise of mainly original tunes and perhaps two or three covers by favourite influences.

These guys have been around the blues a long time, but they have only played a few shows and festivals so far in this line-up. They have been very well received and are very excited about this new venture.

Bandleader, Rick Bamford, is a former resident of the Bega Valley and is well-known in the district. He plays guitar, dobro, slide and lap steel, and is also the main singer.

Bassist, Dean Edgecombe, also carries vocal duties and is a founding member and current president of the Canberra Blues Society. Dean is also a talented songwriter whose songs have been recorded by numerous artists.

James Hoogstad is the band's tenor saxophonist and blues harp player. He brings a wealth of experience to the band.

Drummer, Mitch Preston, is the 'go to' man in Canberra for many acts, both local and touring. Mitch is also a past president of the Canberra Blues Society.
