It was a bumper jam this month with not only a host band from Canberra, but also numerous visiting musos from the Canberra region and elsewhere. We had a full jam board and a houseful of happy punters.

CANBERRA VISITORS

The Minglewood Blues Band treated us to some cool blues featuring tenor sax, along with the harp and guitar frontline. The boys were positively impressed with the welcome we gave them and the friendliness and general good vibe of the event. They're keen to come back another day!

Thanks Rick Bamford, Dean Edgecombe, James Hoogstad and Mitch Preston.

We were also treated to some fine performances by musos from Melbourne, Braidwood, New Zealand and our own Far South Coast region. Thank you to all of our jammers, we appreciate your contribution. And we trust you felt rewarded for your efforts.

For a full list of jammers see the CBC webpage at: www.candelo bluesclub.info.

The Tathra Bushfire Relief Concert—Band Together is behind us now and what a stellar event it was! There was something for everyone's musical tastes, at least in the pop, rock, ballad, folk, heavy metal, rock 'n' roll, etc. genres. And, of course, the blues!

The organisers did a sterling job of pulling it all together and special thanks are due to Darren Jones and Jess Ryan for their outstanding contributions.

CBC SUPPORTS TBRC - BAND TOGETHER

The CBC was proud to do its part too:

- Fund raising prior to the event helped with the staging of the concert and contributed to the Mayoral Appeal.
- We supplied backline equipment for Stage 3—drum kit and bass rig. This is a necessary part of any festival-type show where rapid band changeovers are the order of the day.
- Audio equipment and production were provided by CBC supporters Simon Smith and Adam Twyford. Simon, ably assisted by Adam, worked tirelessly and without a break all day.

- Heather Leeder, along with some of our junior members (Sarah, Toby & Eli) jumped in and helped manage Stage 3 on the day. They were also busy prior to the day with setup and after the day with cleanup.

- Blues On Tap played up a storm despite the full-sun-in-the-face hitting Don pretty hard as he recovers from a serious health setback. Lucy wasn't able to be there so we were very capably fronted by the lovely Jodi-lee Jessop who is a great blues singer and made us all look good!
- The Canberra-based Chris Harland Blues Band was also happy to make an appearance, at the CBC's request, and gave the crowd another hit of the blues.
- Unfortunately, Divine Devilles (also Canberra-based) had to pull out due to illness, so we missed out on another dose of the blues from those fabulous ladies. No muso likes having to cancel a gig and it was with great reluctance that the ladies withdrew.

Next jam will see Blues On Tap back in action as host band and we also have more guest host bands on the cards for later in the year.

Exciting things ahead!

The next jam is on Sunday 10th June. See you there.

Help keep the blues alive!

Jammers, please take note! To assist with an orderly jam and to enable as many jammers as possible to participate...

1. Get your name on the jam board if you wish to join a jam set. Walking up uninvited is not cool.
2. Watch the board and be ready for your set on time.
3. Tune up prior to going on.
4. Minimise your setup time. Wasted time will be deducted from your slot. You have twenty minutes so make the most of them.
5. Don't go overtime (unless and only if you are invited to by the jam co-ordinator).
6. Clear the stage promptly at the end of your set.
7. And, please play the blues - Nothin' but the Blues!

See the expanded rules and guidelines here:

But between sets I'd sneak over to the black places to hear blues musicians. It got to the point where I was making my living at white clubs and having my fun at the other places.
